“When Elvis Presley died, many of his fans would not believe it, and for years, he has been "seen" in various parts of the world. His fans so devoted to him, wanted him to be still alive. This is the same for John Denver. As a great fan of John Denver, it was a shock when he died so tragically in a plane crash. Seems so many country singers die this way. So when I saw Little John, it is some information about this artist. Little John is an internationally acclaimed entertainer, musician and songwriter bringing to life on stage, the legacy of the great John Denver. When performing live, audiences are amazed at the similarity of looks and sounds of John Denver.” “The Best John Denver Tribute Artist in Canada and the USA”
